Balance 015 is an epic triple CD mix which immerses itself into a deep electronic landscape of sound and textures, featuring a blend of artists from yesterday's heroes through to today's renegades like Burial, Smith & Mighty, Seth Troxler, DJ Koze, Ricardo Villalobos, Junior Boys, Sly & Robbie, Appleblim, Daniel Wang, Hercules & Love Affair, Jordan Fields, Mixmaster Morris and more...

Since its inception in 2001, the Balance Series has showcased the diverse and upfront sounds of frontrunners like James Holden, Chris Fortier, Desyn Masiello, Paolo Mojo, Jimmy Van M, S.O.S Collective, and Lee Burridge. Now hot on the heels of Joris Voorn's stunning 100+ track instalment; EQ Recordings returns to the global stage in October 2009 with Balance 015.

With a proud reputation for securing sublime, forward-thinking DJ's that best represent the ever-changing nature of dance music and the shape of things to come; it's little wonder that as the Balance Series has grown in notoriety over recent years, so too has the interest from fans and artists in who will be chosen to take control of the next groundbreaking mix.

And so, without further ado, Balance is extremely pleased to announce that the UK's master of the Deep, Will Saul, has accepted mixing duties for Balance 015.

Since entering the picture with a prodigious victory in Muzik Magazine's coveted "Bedroom Bedlam" mixtape competition back in 2000, Will Saul has risen through the ranks of the dance music elite to firmly establish himself as a DJ, Producer and A&R Manager of premium quality and repute.

As a DJ, Will's trademark penchant for the deep, melodic and hypnotic realms of "discohousetechno" have seen him traverse the planet on tours and hold key residencies at London clubbing institutions like The End and Cable.

As a Producer, Will's insatiable appetite for forging infectious grooves intertwined with deep, lush audio scapes has seen him not only forge a high-end catalogue of originals to date (including 'Tic Toc', 'Fast Lane' and 'Love The Scary'), but earn remix duties for fellow kings of the underground like Phonique, Jesse Rose, Marc Rombo, Manuel Tur and Steve Lawler.
