Eriq Johnson aka. Deeper Sublime, a producer, a DJ, a label owner, began making music in 1995. His first musical compositions written for theatre plays gained popularity and recognition at the music festivals in Avignon and Berlin. For a long time he had occupied himself with writing music for television and radio advertisements. Since 2000 he has been working increasingly as a DJ and performed in almost all countries of the European continent, including Russia and Malta. Eriq Johnson shows different facets of his talent being very successful in various music genres such as electro, house, techno and lounge.

At the end of 2007 he launched his recording label Musicheads, which collaborates both with established stars of the music scene and new upcoming artists.

In 2008 Eriq initiated the music project Deeper Sublime which reflects his passion for chill-out music. The project involves Eriq Johnson's collaboration with such renowned artists as Marga Sol, Matisse, MoVoX etc. All the tracks of Deeper Sublime were released in the numerous compilations by the best chill-out labels like Clubstar, Sine Music, Audio Lotion etc. and received responses from the most notable artists working in the chill-out genre.

With "Ibiza Balearic Session" Eriq shows his musical diversity as well as his love for the Spanish island Ibiza.

The perfect soundtrack for the summer...
