NTRSN - People like Gods
Hard Edged & Beautiful Analog Electronic...

The Belgian duo NTRSN (pronounced as 'intrusion') deliver old-school electronic sounds that only can be heard by utilizing 100 Percent analog equipment, and still deliver a sound that is current, modern...almost futuristic. Supported by Maurizo Fasolo (Pankow) and Peter Van Bogaert (Liquid-G), this release offers the hard cutting edge alongside the beautiful melodic.

NTRSN inspired by bands like Cabaret Voltaire, Front 242, SPK, are fanatical synth-enthusiasts, with a passion for analog systems, machines and visual presentation. Pieter David, is known from his time with the bands Carbon Twelve, DKW, Minimalistix and Code by Code. In 2005 Pieter began working with Bram Declercq, who works in the Photography industry, brought NTRSN into its present form; more than just music, they offer an audio-visual experience to their live audiences.
