2009 was a truly phenomenal year for Dutch artist and Flamingo Records head honcho Fedde Le Grand. With a glittering career that includes worldwide number ones, A-list collaborations, tours in every continent, a raft of International awards and a debut artist album 'Output' that hit over 60 countries worldwide, it was a year that cemented his reputation as one of the most forward-thinking, in-demand, creative forces in Dance Music. Renowned for his global hits 'Put Your Hands Up for Detroit', 'Let Me Think About It', 'The Creeps' and '3 Minutes to Explain', Fedde set all of clubland on fire and stamped his name all over the global music charts. Weighty remixes include Black Eyed Peas front man Will.i.am, Fatboy Slim and Madonna (who used 'Put Your Hands Up...' to promote her Sticky and Sweet tour).

Since the early days his more stripped-down production had won him an elite group of fans, allowing him to experiment with a darker, more minimal Tech House sound. His pseudonym F.L.G. continues this and saw tracks 'Amplified' and 'Pink Bird' on Toolroom Records become anthems on the Underground scene, but this wasn't Fedde's first release on the label. 'Just Trippin' was a massive release that cemented Fedde's association with Toolroom at an early stage. With Fedde working more closely with Toolroom in 2010, he seemed an obvious choice to continue the Toolroom Knights series and kick start the New Year with a very definite bang.

Fedde's Toolroom Knights reflect his world famous DJ sets and explores his versatility as both producer and DJ with CD1 mixed under his F.L.G. moniker and CD2 as Fedde Le Grand. CD1 is deeper and stripped back, laying a distinctive groove in preparation for the more uplifting tones of CD2. Including an exclusive track written by Fedde, namely 'An Old Technique', CD1 includes tracks from Solomun, Noir, Saeed Younan, Joey Negro & Mark Mendes. CD2 kick starts into full on Fedde Le Grand mode with Ntfo's 'Filter' and Steve Bug's 'Swallowed Too Much Bass' before moving onto Johnstar's 'Tick Tock Track', another exclusive on the compilation. Weaving through big room favourites 'My Friend' by Nicky Romero, Marcus Kaes new Flamingo release 'Do Bing' and the massive Fatboy Slim vs. Fedde le Grand - Praise You 2009, CD2 certainly reflects Fedde Le Grand's style.
