The Hype

The next instalment of 'Toolroom Knights' returns with two of House music's biggest talents; Tocadisco & Chris Lake. First up, Tocadisco; an artist who has earned a fast rise to prominence through a unique musical vision that fails to conform; with the results speaking for themselves. Hailing from Cologne, Germany, his short yet prosperous career has seen him remix for the likes of Axwell & Ingrosso, ATB, Amo & Navas, Bob Sinclar and Toolroom Records. In 2008, Tocadisco went on to help David Guetta on his 'Pop Life' album and co-producing 'Tomorrow Can Wait' established him as one of the industries elite producers. Since then Tocadisco has continued to impress with countless top notch releases and DJ appearances the world over. Tocadisco's mix on CD1 kicks off with the deeper sounds of Tony Lionni's 'Found A Place' moving on to the superb Sebastien Leger 'Binola' then accelerating into Tocadisco's awesome exclusive remix of Miami smash 'Stopover' by Dirty South & Mark Knight. Another exclusive follows with Tomy DeClerque 'Backup Again' then showcasing his production talents with storming remixes of Zoo Brazil's 'Late At Night' and 'Pong' by Wippenberg before ending on a brooding note with Cirez D's 'Glow'

The duty of mixing CD2 falls on the shoulders of the accomplished Chris Lake. Globally recognised as one of the most exciting producers, Chris Lake shot to stardom in 2005 with 'Changes', which reached number 27 in the UK national charts. A string of hits ensued which included collaborations with Deadmau5 and Sebastien Leger, as well as occupying the much coveted USA Billboard Dance Chart number one spot with 'Carry Me Away'. His dedication and innovative approach towards music have earned him waves of support amongst his fellow peers making him one of the most sought after artists in the scene. CD2 exhibits the versatility of Chris Lake as both a producer and DJ. The mix starts on a jacking vibe with Uner and Coyu's remix of Noir & Westboy 'She's Got My Heart' and Riva Starr's massive remix of Lake & Lys 'La Tromba' before stepping up a gear with Sergio Fernandez's 'Game Over' and Stefano Noferini's 'Etnico'. The mix rounds off with the showstopping 'Domino's' by Chris Lake & Michael Woods, and another album exclusive Chris Lake 'Amiga' and the epic Mason 'You Are Not Alone'.
